Membership application

New membership process

Application for new membership to the Ringwood Golf Club is subject to the following criteria:

- New membership process
- Applicants must be nominated and seconded by two financial RGC members
- Full payment of the joining fee must accompany the application
- All applications must be lodged with the Secretary
- Only the Secretary will post new applications on the RGC notice board
- All applications must be displayed on the RGC notice board for a minimum seven days prior to consideration by the RGC Committee
- Each applicant name/details are presented to the Committee by the Secretary at the regular monthly Committee meetings.
- Once approved, the applicant must:
  - attend an induction evening to become acquainted with the rules and by-laws of the Club; and
  - pay the appropriate membership fee.
- New members will then be registered for membership and golf. (members without a handicap can then lodge three cards to obtain their initial handicap)

Major competition eligibility:

To become eligible to take part in major club championship competitions members must submit a total of 15 cards.

Please note: Only cards from competitions held on Wednesday (men), Thursday (ladies) and Saturday (mixed) count towards eligible cards. Monday competition cards do not count toward championships.
